Release and Agreement

The undersigned, in consideration of the said privilege of using the recreational sports facilities and the premises thereof of the University of Louisville does hereby freely and willingly and voluntarily assume all risk of accident or damage to his or her person or property, and hereby releases and discharges the University of Louisville and their trustees, employees, agents, successors, assigns and transferees from any claim, liability or damage of any kind or on account of any personal injury, damage, or loss of any kind whatsoever sustained, whether caused by the negligence of said parties or otherwise, while on the property of the University of Louisville, Louisville, Kentucky.

The recreational sports facilities of the University of Louisville are intended to be places of enjoyment, socialization and recreational fulfillment for the university community. Everyone can have fun with some type of activity if we remember the basic purpose of play and recreation. Good sportsmanship is a basic requirement at all time. Whether associated with structured activities or informal recreation, all participants of activities share a responsibility of mutual respect for other participants and staff as well as the facility. Failure to conform to an acceptable level of respect and sportsmanship may render participants ineligible to utilize recreational sports facilities. The Department of Intramural and Recreational Sports may impose restrictions including placing participants on a probationary status, suspending participants from the use of facilities or making referrals to the university discipline process.
